The screenshot shows the Naviance website interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: Home, courses, colleges, careers, about me, and my planner. Below the navigation is a search bar for colleges with a 'Go' button and a link to 'MORE SEARCH OPTIONS >>'. On the left, there are 'resources' links for transcripts and test scores.

The main content area is divided into sections: 'my colleges' and 'college research'. In the 'my colleges' section, there are links for 'colleges I'm thinking about', 'colleges I'm applying to', and 'Upcoming college visits'. A red arrow points from the 'Upcoming college visits' link to the 'college visits' table below.

The 'college visits' table is located in the 'family connection' section. It has a search bar and a 'Go' button. The table lists various colleges with their respective dates, locations, and registration deadlines. A red arrow points to the 'sign up' link for the University of Florida.

Let's shift gears...

Community College

Can be a great cost saving tool

Can be an excellent “second chance” at the gpa you need to get into the four year program you want.

Do not require SAT or ACT for admission

Please remember...

...this is not high school.

College courses are rigorous even at the Community College level.

No one is going to hold you accountable except yourself.

To be successful, you must have a plan!!!
